Congressman Tours E. Berlin To Display Right

Makes Trip in Radio-Equipped
Army Sedan

BERLIN (AP)—A U. S. congressman toured East Berlin in a radio telephone-equipped Army sedan today in a show of American determination to retain the right of free movement throughout this divided city.

Rep. Ed Edmondson (D-Okla.) drove into the Soviet sector only a day after Soviet Ambassador G. M. Pushkin had rejected an Allied protest against the arrest of two congressmen under the same circumstances in East Berlin. Pushkin said the "sovereign" East Germans have the right to arrest Westerners for having radio and telephone equipment in vehicles.

Edmondson was accompanied by Capt. Peter Bennett, Army escort officer from Sebastopol, Calif.

Despite Pushkin's rejection of Allied insistence that four-power occupation rules still apply, the Soviets suddenly decided today to allow 12 American soldiers to enter the Communist Zone of Germany to search for American war dead.

The soldiers entered peacefully and with full military courtesy extended by Russian border guards.

The Edmondson tour of East Berlin also was without incident.

"There was no trouble at all," Army authorities said.

The Army sedan entered the Communist sector at 2:30 p. m. and returned to West Berlin at 3:45 p. m.

Search for Bodies
Edmondson and Bennett stopped off at the Soviet war memorial where two other congressmen, the wife of one and their escort officer were arrested at pistol-point by East German police Nov. 27 for violating the law against using radio-telephone-equipped vehicles.

That incident touched off the current dispute on the status of Berlin and Western Allied rights in the city.

The soldiers entered the Soviet Zone from West Berlin in a convoy of five Army sedans and four trucks.

The Soviet sentry lifted a red and white barrier on Glienicke bridge and the convoy entered without a hitch. The sentry saluted each of the American vehicles smartly.

The Americans will split into four teams of three men each to investigate graves reported to contain American bodies.

American authorities believe 131 American victims of World War II are buried in East Germany, most of the men fliers killed in plane crashes.

Young Housewife Is Strangled With Clothes Line

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Police searched for a mysterious black car and rounded up all known sex offenders today in their search for the strangler of a pretty young housewife.

Top police officials believed the murder of Mrs. Darrel F. Parker, 24, was a sex crime, even though an autopsy failed to show whether she had been assaulted.

Mrs. Parker's husband, who is Lincoln's city forester, came home Wednesday to find her nearly nude body sprawled on a bed.

A clothes line was wrapped around her neck, her hands were tied behind her back, and two men's handkerchiefs with the initials "D" were stuffed in her mouth.

The slain woman wore only a bra and a sweat shirt, which had been partially ripped away. Her other clothes were piled on the floor nearby.

The autopsy determined that she was strangled a few hours before Parker returned from work, police said.

Capt. Paul Beave of the Lincoln police said "as many as a dozen" residents reported seeing a black 1949 or 1950 Ford car parked near the Parker home. The hour when the car was seen coincided approximately with the estimated time of Mrs. Parker's death.

Oklahoma Firm to Build Natural Gas Gathering System at Eldorado

The Jade Oil and Gas Co., Tulsa, Okla., has announced that it is securing rights of way for a natural gas gathering system for the Eldorado oil field. The announcement stated that purchase contracts had been made with a majority of the oil producing companies in the vicinity of Eldorado.

The Jade Oil and Gas Co. operates locally as the KB Compression Co.

Sam L. Bewley, a vice president of Jade, and his landman, L. C. Overmiller, are in charge of obtaining the rights of way from landowners for the laying of the line.

Initially the line will extend from the Eldorado North field to the Big Inch line of the Texas Eastern Transmission Co., with which they have made a sales contract.

Two compressing stations will be built at an estimated cost of $500,000 which are necessary to boost the pressure up to 800 pounds, so that it can be fed into the big line.

Three stages of compression will be necessary. Three tenders will be required to operate the stations.

The gathering line will be approximately ten miles in length in the beginning, including several spur lines. However, it is planned to further extend the lines westward at a later date, picking up available gas in the Green Hill pool and other areas west of Eldorado.

Mrs. Hettie Douglas Found Drowned In Her Bathtub

Funeral services for Mrs. Hettie Douglas, 77, whose death occurred yesterday noon at her home, 911 West Longley, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Big Ridge Baptist church. Rev. Clayton Humphrey will officiate, assisted by Rev. Roy Reynolds, and interment will be in the Big Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Douglas was found yesterday at 12:30 p. m. face down in her bathtub half filled with water. She was fully clothed. Members of the fire department tried for 45 minutes to revive her, but their efforts were in vain. Death was due to drowning, it was stated today by Coroner Elmer M. Gibbons.

She returned from the hospital one week ago.

Mrs. Douglas was born in Saline county Oct. 24, 1878, and on June 10, 1895, was married to J. A. Douglas who preceded her in death one year ago this month.

She was a member of the Big Ridge Baptist church.

Survivors include eight children: Charley Douglas, Pontiac, Mich.; Ida Mae Holland, Pontiac, Mich.; Minnie Lyons, Detroit, Mich.; Art, J. D. Bill Douglas, Beulah Barnes, and Nina Azar, all of Harrisburg. Two children preceded her in death.

She also leaves two brothers, George and Willis Holland, both of Harrisburg, and 25 grandchildren.

The body lies in state at the Gaskins funeral home.

Carpentier Hurls Hat in '56 Ring At Office Party

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier announced Wednesday in a setting of sailing balloons, party hats and confetti that he will seek a second term.

Carpentier, a Republican, threw his hat in the 1956 ring at his office Christmas party held in the State Armory and attended by about 2,000 employees and guests.

The announcement, which Carpentier said he was certain "did not come as a surprise," was served up between a turkey dinner and a dance.

The secretary said he believed his co-workers and employees "should be the first to know officially that, God willing, it is my firm intention to be a candidate for renomination and re-election."

He said he has tried his "best to work on and with the team" of Gov. William G. Stratton.

Carpentier said the "team" has moved Illinois "forward on many fronts," but that "there still are problems to be solved . . . and that is why I have chosen this occasion" to announce for re-election.

Carpentier or Stratton face a challenge to their renomination from State Treasurer Warren Wright who has no place on the "team" because the constitution forbids him to succeed himself. Wright has said he will let his supporters decide whether he will run against Stratton or against Carpentier.

Carpentier, 59, was elected to four terms in the State Senate starting in 1938 and before that served five terms as mayor of East Moline. A native of Moline, he became secretary of state in 1952.

Two Miners Killed, 80 Injured During November

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The State Mines and Minerals Department today listed total November coal production in the state at 4,202,517 tons and reported two miners killed during the month.

There were also 80 miners injured in November and the 11-month casualty total for 1955 rose to 17 dead and 892 injured.

November production went up 256,531 tons from October, but dropped 97,246 tons from November, 1954. The month's production came from 137 mines in 34 counties. There were 11,465 miners employed, compared to 12,040 in October.

Miss Avah Phillips Advances to Semifinal Round in Scholarship Exams

Miss Avah Phillips, HTHS senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brose Phillips, is one of 5,000 high school seniors who have advanced to the semifinal round in scholarship competition.

The National Merit Scholarship Corp., sponsors of the largest private scholarship program in American history, has announced the 5,000 semifinalists and ultimately, at least 425 of them will be awarded four-year college scholarships with a total value of over 2½ million dollars.

The 5,000 whose names were announced today were high scorers among 80,000 who began the quest for merit scholarships in a preliminary screening test Oct. 26.

They represent every state, and the territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Miss Phillips was one of seven students who took the exams at the Harrisburg Township high school.

The October examination was in each of the participating high schools. The next examination will come Jan. 14, and will be a college aptitude test administered in testing centers. Of the 5,000 taking this test, about 2,500 will go on to the finals.

From the list of finalists, perhaps as many as 500 merit scholars and 2,000 certificate of merit winners will be named. In the final judging, personal qualities, leadership potential and actual previous scholastic achievement will be considered.

Merit scholars may attend any accredited college or university they choose. The amount each receives varies by the need of the scholar, and may range from $100 per year to full tuition and living expenses for four years. Colleges attended by merit scholars get supplemental grants equal to full tuition, if the two amounts do not exceed $1,500 a year.

The basic merit program came from grants totaling 20½ million dollars from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. Sponsors include the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Time Inc., Stewart-Warner Corp., McGraw-Hill Publishing Co., Pittsburgh Plate Glass Foundation, Johnson Motor Lines, and the Gillette Co.

Rejected Suitor, 17, Kills Three, Wounds Girl; Is Captured After Gun Battle

VANDERGRIFT, Pa. (AP)—A 17-year-old boy who killed the parents and uncle of a girl who spurned him, was captured today after a gun battle in a woodland hollow where both he and a police chief were wounded.

The youth, John Fallone of near Ford City, Pa., was surrounded along the banks of Crooked Creek, about a half mile from the Mater, Pa., home where he staged the wild shooting spree Wednesday night.

He began his orgy at about 8 p. m. by shooting down the three adults and the 15-year-old girl who had refused to "go steady" with him.

The girl, Gladys Small, was wounded critically by Fallone, who also tried to blow up the Small home with a dynamite bomb.

A posse of more than 25 state troopers and local police trailed Fallone all night in a snow storm through the rugged woodland area of Armstrong county. They trapped him just before noon in a section known as Baker Hollow.

The wounded slayer was taken to Armstrong Memorial hospital at Kittanning. Already there were Police Chief Gus Zanos, Apollo, who was wounded in the head by a glancing bullet, and Miss Small.

Fallone, whom police described as a "mental case," returned to his home after Wednesday night's shootings and calmly watched television accounts of the killings. Then he went to bed. He escaped through a window when officers arrived at his home shortly after 11 p. m.

When the posse cornered him in the hollow, Fallone opened fire from a thicket. Zanos was wounded, and the posse drew back to await assistance. An hour later they closed in on Fallone who had been wounded.

One of the victims, William Small, 47, received only a leg wound in the first outburst of shooting. He crawled for help and returned only to be killed in another fusillade.

The other dead were identified as Jay Warren Small, 44, brother of William Small, and Jay Small's wife, Irene, 36. A daughter of the Jay Smalls, Gladys Aline, 15, was reported in poor condition in Armstrong Memorial Hospital at Kittanning, Pa., with a chest wound.

Justice of the Peace Homer King said William Small burst into his home Wednesday night, bleeding from the leg, and shouting: "There's a criminal on the loose."

Met By Rifle Fire
King notified state police and then drove Small back to the Small home where the shooting took place. They got out of the car and approached the house, only to be driven back by rifle fire by Fallone.

A bullet struck Small in the stomach, and he fell to the ground. Officers said he then was killed by a bullet in the head.

12th Fire in Golconda Area
Since Aug. 29

GOLCONDA, Ill. (AP)—The twelfth fire in the Golconda area since Aug. 29 had Pope County authorities mystified today.

Authorities say someone definitely set the fire that burned down a barn on a farm owned by William Walker here Wednesday night with the loss of 1,000 bales of hay. Walker lives in Golconda and the farmhouse on the place was vacant.

Authorities already are holding two Golconda men in jail on charges of arson in connection with the previous mystery fires, James Belt, 34, and Herbert Irby, 32, are held in lieu of bond pending grand jury action.

A citizens' patrol caught Belt and Irby driving away from a vacant house just as it burst into flame Nov. 30. The previous fires destroyed or badly damaged several vacant houses and Pope County fairgrounds buildings.

Recover Almost All Of $900,000 Cancelled Checks

PARIS, Ill. (AP)—An estimated $900,000 in cancelled checks was reported "almost all" recovered today after being scattered from a mail bag which fell under a speeding train.

Railroad and postal employees said the checks were scattered over five blocks along the tracks. The bag containing the checks was one of eight tossed off an east-bound New York Central train hitting 70 m.p.h. at the time.

The bag hit a post and was sucked under the train. The checks were to be transferred south for Crossville and Robinson banks.

Five railroad employees spent Tuesday picking up the checks and stuffing them in wastebaskets, station master G. R. McNabb reported.

Coal-Burning Gas
Turbine Locomotive
To Be Built in '57

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first coal-burning gas turbine locomotive, the coal industry's expected answer to the diesel engine, will be under construction by 1957.

Test work on the turbine is expected to be finished next year, the locomotive development committee of Bituminous Coal Research Inc. announced Wednesday.

The bituminous industry and a number of railroads have been co-operating in research on the new turbine locomotive for eight years, a spokesman for the research group said.

He said the new type of locomotive is expected to be as much as $50,000 a year cheaper to operate than diesels.

The new engine uses powdered coal, burned at high temperatures to produce gases. Heat from the gas then rotates a turbine which, in turn, generates electricity to propel the locomotive.

Warns of Red Aid in Asia, Middle East

Soviet Strategy a Serious Threat, Sec'y
Says in NATO Talk

PARIS (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today that the Soviet Union has launched a new cold war offensive in the Middle East and Asia.

In an address to the opening session of the North Atlantic Council, Dulles said the new Soviet strategy is a serious threat.

Speaking for nearly an hour to the assembled foreign, defense and treasury ministers of the 15 NATO nations gathered to review the West's military, political and economic policies in the cold war, Dulles noted that the Soviets have the potential to act decisively.

He said the Soviets were offering both aid and technicians in the Middle East and Asia. He pointed out that Russia has huge stocks of obsolescent arms to offer, even though it lacks many consumer goods.

The Dulles speech reviewed in their entirety the Soviet's zigzags of policy for the last year.

He said the year started and ended with the cold war. He recalled that last year's annual NATO Council meeting met under growing Soviet threats of what would happen if the West approved the Western European Union (WEU).

That crisis came and went, he noted. But the last 12 months, he added, had made up a "kaleidoscope year" which posed a "lot of puzzles."

He recalled that his prophecies have come true that Russia would not carry out its threats against bringing Germany into NATO.

He pointed out that the conclusion of the Austrian state treaty, the "pilgrimage" by Soviet leaders to Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia, and finally the Geneva summit conference all were part of a puzzling year.

Dulles said the Soviet position became clear during the second Geneva conference of foreign ministers. At that time Moscow refused to unify Germany by free elections and rejected Western proposals for more contacts between East and West.

He speculated that Soviet policy was triggered by "a mixture of sense and strength, fear and remnants of Stalinist philosophy."

In addition to listening to the speeches, the meeting approved a military report prepared beforehand. This warned the West of the increasing power of Soviet arms and gave a second survey of Russia's political aims.

"The military threat before NATO today is greater than at any previous time," the military survey said, adding that there are no signs of relaxation.

It was the first Western review of Soviet policy since the Russians exploded the spirit of Geneva last month with a harsh refusal to consider free elections for unifying Germany. It opened in belief the West's own sincerity for peace at Geneva had encouraged Russia to head back toward a tough cold war.

The meeting at the Palais De Chaillot NATO headquarters was the first time West Germany had joined as a NATO member in the defense planning of the West.

Woman Drowns
When Auto Lands in Ditch

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill. (AP)—Mrs. Maryvonne Higgins, 46, Belmont, drowned in two feet of water Wednesday night when her car tumbled into a ditch.

Police said the car landed on its left side and Mrs. Higgins was wedged between the seat and the door, with the upper half of her body under water.

Passersby rescued her companion, Mrs. Jewell Olline Newkirk, 32, of Mount Carmel, by ripping the right door off its hinges. She suffered minor injuries and shock.

The two women were driving along Route 15 when the car apparently hit a slippery spot, swerved into a bridge abutment at Great-House Creek, and went into the water, police said.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God. — John 1:12.

When the mind that was in Christ Jesus is within us we will act as He acted. Christ said, who hath seen Me hath seen the father, and Paul said it is no longer I that live but Christ. Paul gives us a fine picture, of a Christ-like man.

It's No Part Time Job

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

So long as there is any prospect that President Eisenhower will run again in 1956, his health is bound to be a subject for political discussion. But it is a kind of argument that ought to be weighed with extreme care.

There is considerable concern among Democrats that the President's advisers will persuade him to run by convincing him he can function successfully as a sort of part-time Chief Executive.

In that connection, some opposition men now are privately commenting that Republican leaders and President's inner circle are trying to create a "false image," indicating he is once more in full control of the government.

The Democratic contention is that he is not, that the well-publicized goings and comings of administration officials, involving Gettysburg and Camp David, are just so much window dressing.

The argument, of course, is that this "impression" of firm presidential control might be made to serve a double purpose. For one, it might suit Mr. Eisenhower on the idea he can run the office on a greatly reduced basis. And it might satisfy the millions who like him as President that it is wise and proper to keep him in the job.

Fair appraisal forces one to conclude, however, that this argument breaks on the rock of fact.

Admittedly many Republicans are thinking wishfully about the President's 1956 intentions, and certainly doing little to discourage the notion he is increasingly active in his job. But Mr. Eisenhower himself made plain the moment he landed in Washington Nov. 11 that he would be compelled to ease his way back to his duties rather than "bulldoze" his way.

The stories emanating from Gettysburg and Camp David relate quite frankly the limited hours the President still is spending at work.
They talk of his naps, his bridge games and other recreational pursuits.

Secondly, the President's de-sense of duty and responsibility makes it highly unlikely he would allow himself to be persuaded to run again if he were not wholly satisfied in his own mind he is fit for the essentials of the job. Mr.
Eisenhower is not exactly a pawn in the hands of his advisers and party leaders.

By now he should know what constitutes the substance of his job.
One suspects the American people can trust him to say "no" if he believes himself incapable of doing what a President is elected to do.

No Warmed-Over New Deal Is Stevenson's Rallying Cry

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—In Adlai Stevenson's speech at Duluth, Minn., there was one paragraph that may not have received the emphasis it deserves.

"We're serving notice now," said Stevenson, "that there is going to be a change. I don't mean a change back to a warmed-over New Deal. I mean a forward change—a change that takes up where we left off in 1952, that goes ahead again with some of the things that need doing."

That phrase, "No warmed-over New Deal" is one that Stevenson seems to have nailed to his masthead. It expresses better than anything else he has said so far what he stands for.

Blizzard Blamed For Three Deaths; Cold Grips Nation

By United Press

A killer blizzard isolated towns in the Dakotas and was blamed for at least three deaths in the United States and Canada today.

The blizzard still threw most of its punch at two Canadian provinces. But zero temperatures and wind-driven snow created near-blizzard conditions from the Dakotas through Minnesota to northern Wisconsin.

An accompanying massive cold front was expected to grip the nation in a new cold wave from the Rockies to the Appalachians.
It had already knifed as far south as southern Texas and as far east as the Ohio River Valley.

Two of the blizzard deaths were in Canada. A Moose Jaw, Sask., man died of exhaustion after trying to fight his way through waist-high drifts. And a veteran Royal Canadian Mounted Police officer died of carbon-monoxide poisoning in his blizzard-stalled car.

In South Dakota Wednesday, 24-year-old Richard MacKillop of Parker stopped along a highway to aid a stranded motorist. A car travelling through the blinding snow struck and killed him.

Icy Gales Hit North Atlantic; At Least 8 Dead

LONDON (UP)—Icy late-fall gales accompanied by torrents of rain lashed western Europe and the North Atlantic Wednesday night and early today, killing at least eight persons.

Three persons were reported drowned or dashed to death when the Belgian trawler Beatrix Fer-nande was driven onto Scotland's rocky coast by 70-mile-an-hour winds. Three more were drowned in flash floods in Portugal.

A British air force helicopter crewman was killed and another was "presumed dead" when the gale smashed their frail craft into Bell Rock lighthouse, 12 miles off Scotland's southeast coast. The body of the second copter crewman has not yet been found.

The Icelandic freighter Tylin rescued the seven-man crew of the sinking Norwegian coastal freighter Speroe in a difficult sea rescue operation early today.

revolution between three and one-half to six years.

Illness Forces Uruguayan Chief To Halt Tour

CHICAGO (UP)—A sudden stomach attack today forced Uruguayan President Luis Batlle Berres to discontinue his tour of the United States.

The president suffered an apparent bleeding ulcer attack at a private dinner Wednesday night and was rushed to a hospital. Doctors at Wesley Memorial hospital said his condition was "excellent" but advised him to stay in bed for at least a few days, cutting short his 10-day-old tour of the U. S.

Sources close to the 56-year-old president said he fainted while attending a dinner in his honor at the exclusive Chicago Club.

Batlle Berres recovered consciousness and refused to be carried to an ambulance. But, while walking to the door he became ill and vomited some blood, the sources said.

Hours later at the hospital, attending physicians issued a statement saying "there is apparently a bleeding ulcer. The president's condition is excellent."

The president's wife, attending a suburban function, was reported to have suffered an attack of indigestion as she rushed to her husband's side. Batlle Berres' oldest son, John, 25, was also with him. Urguayan officials were meanwhile trying to locate his youngest son, Luis, in New York.

Wesley doctors also expressed optimism, saying they hoped the president would make a "complete recovery" within a few days.

However, an official statement said earlier that Batlle Berres was suffering from "extreme exhaustion" and his U. S. tour would have to be discontinued.

Batlle Berres had been showing visible signs of strain during his fast-moving trip through this country. Wednesday, before flying from Boston, Mass., to Chicago, he remarked that he had made about 250 speeches in 10 days.

Auto Dealer Says He Was Approached On Swindle Deal

LONDON, Ky. (UP)—Irving Pollock, Toledo, Ohio, automobile dealer, testified today that two men charged with bilking two Ohio industrialists out of $50,000 last July approached him with an identical scheme several months earlier.

Pollock told a Federal Court jury here that Simpson Bryon Cross, Jackson, Miss., contacted him last April with a scheme to purchase $1,000 bills at a discount.

He said Cross and Joe Buchanan, also of Jackson, contacted him again several days before Kenneth and Robert Close, Toledo and Bowling Green, Ohio, allegedly were victims of a money-switching confidence game.

Cross, Buchanan and three others are charged with using interstate telephone lines with intent to defraud. The others are George Jack Hutchinson, Louisville, Ky., Charles Paul Rothchild, former policeman from Carbondale, Ill., and George Henson, London.

The Close brothers testified they exchanged envelopes containing $50,000 in cash plus a purported $10,000 furnished by Cross, last July 28 at the London-Corbin airport here.

The envelope they received in return, they claimed, contained newspaper clippings cut to the size of currency, instead of the promised $100,000 in $1,000 bills.

Kenneth Close, Toledo, testified Wednesday that he "didn't think there was any risk involved in the scheme at first, but later I realized they had something going on."

Gov't Releases More Vaccine

Health Service today released
1,028,853 doses of Salk polio vaccine for use in inoculating children and pregnant women.

Marion Man, Filled With Christmas 'Spirits', is Fined

MARION, Ill. (UP)—When police harkened to Darrel Marks singing "Silent Night" in the courthouse square they doubted if he was actually filled with the Christmas spirit.

They confirmed their suspicion when they discovered that Marks was filled with the spirits that once filled a bottle he was holding. He was fined $15.20 on drunkenness charges.

The devotion was given by the class teacher, Mrs. George Rumsey, on "The Virgin Birth of Christ," as taken from the two gospels, Matthew and Luke.

The old time merriment was manifest in exchange of presents and presenting Mrs. Rumsey with a beautiful leather handbag and gloves. Seasonal games were enjoyed and refreshments of fruit, homemade cookies and candies were served. A tray was sent to Helen Dunn, a shut-in member.

In loving memory of Bobbie Gene Dempsey who died one year ago Dec. 15. Little we knew with dawn that morn. The sorrow it would bring. The blow was hard, the shock severe. We little thought the end was near. If all the world were ours to give. We would give it, yes and more. To see your smiling face again. Come shining through the door. Sometimes it is hard to understand. Why some things have to be. But in His wisdom God had planned. Beyond our power to see. God gave us strength to bear it. And courage to meet the blow. But what it meant to lose you. This world will never know. The beautiful things you did for us. Live in our hearts each day. And keep you near and dear to us. Though you have passed away. The weeks have faded into months. The months into a year. Some days filled with sunshine. Others filled with tears. But we know we will meet you. When this life is done. To live with you forever. ### In Memoriam

In loving memory of William Ellis Patton, who passed away one year ago today, Dec. 15, 1954. The Master came to earth's garden. When the morning was bright and fair. And lovingly looked on the splendor. He saw reflected there: Blossoms of wondrous beauty — Rich colors and rare perfumes — And He summoned an angel to gather. A few of the sweetest blooms. Then He carried them back to Heaven. Where they never would wither or die. But live on forever, rejoicing. In His wonderful garden on high. Sadly missed by all who knew and loved him. 143-1

In loving memory of our son and brother, William Ellis Patton, who departed this life one year ago today, Dec. 15, 1954. God must have loved him very much. And we have loved him, too. We know how many helpful things His kind hands found to do; But till we reach that happy place Where griefs are all consoled, We'll never know the joy he's found. Beyond the sunset's gold. Sadly missed by mother, father, brothers and sisters. 140-1

In loving memory of our grandson, Bob Dempsey, who was killed one year ago today at Sahara 5 mine. He did not have a last farewell. He said goodbye to no one. His loving heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew he was gone. He did not fail to do his part. His heart was true and tender. He worked so hard for the ones he loved. And each will be remembered. Not ours to know the reason why. From loved ones we must part. But ours to live in faith and hope. Though bleeding from the heart. Grandpa and Grandma Dempsey. 143-1

Pilot Crash-Lands Light Plane, Walks Away Unhurt

STREATOR, Ill. (AP) — A light plane made a crash landing near here early today but the pilot walked away unhurt.

Michael Bates, 32, St. Charles, Mo., made a crash landing beside Ill. 18 when the fueling system of his Piper Cub failed while en route from St. Louis to Chicago's O'Hare Field.

Bates said the fuel failed to feed when he switched to his second gas tank. He believed the tank valves may have frozen. He landed in a cornfield 2½ miles east of here. The plane was wrecked.

Effingham County Board Rejects Lake Road Funds

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—The Effingham County Board of Supervisors has turned down a request that the county provide funds toward construction of a road around a proposed reservoir.

The Effingham Water Authority asked the board to pay part of the cost of building a road around the proposed Blue Lake reservoir. The 735-acre lake would provide water for the Effingham area.

The county supervisors turned down the request Wednesday after hearing objections from a group of farmers.

The farmers own the land that the water authority wants to buy for the lake. They say they have been offered an average price of $113 per acre for land they value between $175 and $225 an acre.

The water authority plans to buy 2,200 acres of land for the reservoir and recreational areas and building lots around it. A bonding firm that would handle the financing of the lake will allow the authority $250,000 to spend on land acquisition.

Knowland Urges Priority for Debt Reduction

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland said today he would like to see the government able to pay about one billion dollars on the national debt before taxes are cut.

He also indicated that he doubts the Eisenhower administration will recommend a tax reduction in the 1956 election year.

Knowland told newsmen he was not suggesting the one billion dollar annual payment on the national debt as a "rigid" figure or as one backed by the administration. But he did make clear that he believes the administration is prepared to give priority to at least some debt reduction ahead of a tax cut.

"I don't believe there should be any tax reduction contemplated until the budget is balanced and there is some reduction of the national debt," he said.

Gaitskell Elected To Head British Labor Party

LONDON (AP)—The brusque resignation from the British Labor Party by a Socialist member of the House of Lords today dampened press and public enthusiasm over the election of Hugh Gaitskell as leader of the party.

Gaitskell, 49, staunchly pro-American rightwinger, succeeded to the post vacated last week by Clement R. Attlee by winning a smashing first ballot victory in the elections by Labor members of Parliament. He polled 137 of 267 votes, easily outdistancing left winger Aneurin Bevan and middle roader Herbert Morrison.

The one sour note amid the almost unanimous acclaim for his victory was struck by Lord Amwell. The 79-year-old lord announced: "I am... withdrawing my name from the party."

Amwell, called the "Cockney peer" because of his working class background, added that if Morrison had been elected "I would never have done it." However, Amwell long has been a "rebel" in Labor ranks and his abrupt departure appeared to carry little political significance.

Stevenson Enters Five Primaries

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson will test his strength as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in at least five state primaries next year.

Stevenson announced Wednesday night he will enter four more primaries, including his home state of Illinois, in his bid for renomination.

The others are California, Florida and Pennsylvania. He already had agreed to have his name on the presidential preference ballot in Minnesota.

Stevenson added he had reached "no final decision at this time" of whether to enter other primaries.

cause they've developed the knack of beating the second-place St. Louis Hawks.

At Pittsburgh Wednesday night, the Royals beat the Hawks for the fourth time in the last eight days, 117-109, as player-coach Bobby Wanzer paced the attack with 24 points.

In a doubleheader at Boston, the Celtics beat the New York Knicks, 102-100, on Ed Macauley's jump shot with six seconds left, and the Minneapolis Lakers ended a six-game losing streak by beating Fort Wayne, 98-85.

Minneapolis breezed to victory after opening a 30-point lead during the third period against the off-form Pistons. Clyde Lovellette of the Lakers and Larry Foust of Fort Wayne tied for scoring honors with 22 points.

North Carolina's Towering Tar Heels Show Power in 99-77 Drubbing of Alabama

By United Press
The basketball power Coach Frank McGuire has been slowly building at North Carolina "arrived" at last today, bidding for high national honors with a stunning victory over tourney winner Alabama.

"That's the best team we've played yet; they were too tall for us," Alabama Coach Johnny Dee was forced to admit after his Crimson Tide, ranked seventh nationally since winning last week's Birmingham Classic tournament, had been trounced by the McGuire-men, 99-77, at Chapel Hill, N. C., Wednesday night.

The Tar Heels, loaded with sky-scraping sophs McGuire obtained chiefly from the sidewalks of New York, went into Wednesday night's game without a national ranking—but came out with a perfect 5-0 record and the virtual certainty of a high national rank next week.

Alabama, so strong that it has been given a fine chance to end Kentucky's rule of the Southeastern Conference, could stay with North Carolina for only 15 minutes. Lennie Rosenbluth, who racked up 13 of his game-leading 29 points in the first half, paced the Tar Heels to a 48-42 halftime margin. North Carolina jumped home as Joe Quigg and Jerry Vayda supported Rosenbluth with 18 points each. George Linn had 17 for Alabama.

Tar Heels Too Good

"We had 42 points at halftime," Dee pointed out. "That's usually enough. You can't take anything away from North Carolina. They are just too good."

North Carolina's chief aim, of course, is a local one — to beat out North Carolina State, ranked No. 3 nationally, for the Atlantic Coast Conference title. State has won a league crown seven times in the last eight years, but McGuire's young team may be ready to take over.

North Carolina State, getting ready for this challenge, easily turned back league foe South Carolina Wednesday night, 90-66. Held to a 35-30 margin at halftime, the

New Fielding Record Set by Ted Kluszewski

NEW YORK AP—Ted Kluszewski is no "Fancy Dan" but his sharpest critics must admit he gets the job done.

That was the testimony of the National league's official fielding statistics. They revealed today that the Cincinnati Redlegs' 235-pound slugger set a major league record by leading the circuit's first-basemen in fielding for the fifth consecutive season.

Kluszewski handled 1,482 chances and committed only eight errors this year in compiling a .995 average that beat out Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals by .002 points. Over the last five years Kluszewski has handled a total of 6,844 chances and made only 33 errors for a .995 percentage.

Shared Old Record

Kluszewski previously shared the record for leading first-basemen in fielding four straight seasons with Dan McGann, Chick Gandil, Joe Judge and Charley Grimm. Grimm led the N.L. in fielding nine times for an all-time mark now within Kluszewski's range.

Kluszewski, who developed his muscles by loading 120-pound bags of corn as a youth in Argo, Ill., previously led N.L. first basemen in fielding with marks of .997, .993, .995 and .996.

In addition to big Ted, a team of players with the best fielding averages in the league would include catcher Andy Seminick of the Philadelphia Phillies, second-baseman Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals, shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, third-baseman Willie Jones of the Phillies, outfielder Eddie Miksis of the Cubs and pitcher Art Fowler of the Redlegs.

Phils Tops in Defense

Club defensive honors went to the Phillies with a .981 average while the last-place Pittsburgh Pirates led with 175 double plays.

Seminick made only three errors in 93 games for a .994 mark compared to the .992 average compiled by Brooklyn's Roy Campanella, the circuit's most valuable player. Campanella was charged with six errors in 121 games.

Schoendienst topped the second basemen with .985. Banks led the shortstops with .972. Jones won his third straight crown for defense as third with .960. Miksis shaded Brooklyn's Duke Snider for honors among outfielders with .959 and Fowler handled 42 chances to top a list of 34 pitchers with averages of 1.000.

Writer Found Hanged at Home

WASHINGTON AP—Duncan Aikman, author, newspaperman and Latin American affairs expert, was found hanged in the basement of his home Wednesday night.

Police said the writer, 66, a native of Terre Haute, Ind., and former Illinois newspaperman, had been in ill health and no foul play was suspected. He was found by his mother, Mrs. Flora Aikman.

He was the author of "The Turning Stream" and other books. During World War II he served as chief consultant to the press division of the Office of Coordinator of Interamerican Affairs.

Tenneson Says Conscience Guided Him to Communism

TOKYO AP—American turn-coat Richard Tenneson said today his conscience guided him to acceptance of communism in Red China, but "I have betrayed no one."

The former Army private first class from Alden, Minn., stopped over here en route home while his former "hosts" were announcing in Peiping that Mrs. Homer Bradshaw, ailing wife of an American missionary, will be released Dec. 20.

Tenneson during his brief stop-over here failed to explain what made him decide to come home after choosing communism with 22 other Korean war prisoners. He showed no remorse for turning his back on his native land.

He said that if he had to do it again, "I would have finished it just as I have."

Derailment Disrupts Rail Traffic at Olney

OLNEY, Ill. AP—Traffic on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad through Olney was disrupted today because four cars of a freight train left the tracks this morning. The 52-car train bound for St. Louis was in Olney when the cars immediately in front of the caboose left the tracks, three of them overturning. The caboose remained on the tracks and no one was injured in the derailment.

Armless Driver Acquitted on Speeding Charge

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. AP—A jury has acquitted Edward E. Higgins, 29, who has no arms and steers his car with his feet, of a charge he drove 100 miles an hour.

A jury decided Wednesday that pursuing police officers drove 106 miles an hour to catch Higgins because they were far behind him on the highway—not because he was exceeding the 60 mile an hour speed limit.

State Payroll Shows Increase For Two Years

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — State Auditor Orville G. Hodge's report for August today showed state payrolls had increased by 2,565 persons and $1,533,625 in two years.

This was a jump of 6 per cent in persons employed and about 12 per cent in total pay.

The increase for the last year of the two-year span was 1,273 employees and $768,055.

Code departments under Gov. William G. Stratton added 389 employees from August, 1953, to August, 1955. However, some code department duties were transferred to state commissions, which increased payrolls by 741 over the two years.

The new Youth Commission took over handling of juvenile offenders and the Illinois Commerce Commission added truck regulations to its duties. The overall increase for two years for commissions and code departments payrolls was 1,130.

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter's payroll increased by 261 in two years, 143 added in the last year. Carpenter's office took on an expanded driver's license inspection program and faced increases ed motor vehicle registration.

Auditor Hodge's payroll was up by 51 employees over the two-year period, with the second year responsible for the entire boost, since he had reduced payrolls by 10 the first year.

State university and college payrolls went up 575 in the two years. The total state payroll for August, 1955, was $14,033,035 to 46,381 persons, 43,476 of them full-time workers.

Flight Engineers End Strike Against United Air Lines

WASHINGTON (UP) — A 52-day-old strike by flight engineers against United Air Lines is over. The strike was settled late Wednesday in time to assure that United will have extra plane service for Christmas.

The dispute ended with an agreement between company and union

United said it will return all strikers to the payroll no later than Dec. 19 without disciplinary action. The strike began Oct. 23.

The dispute centered around a company demand that all its flight engineers be certified pilots. The company retained this right in the new contract but agreed to provide pilot training for its flight engineers, the company said.

The agreement also calls for wage increases raising flight engi-

Magistrate Named Solomon Shows Judicial Wisdom

NEW YORK —A magistrate named Solomon came up Tuesday with a judicial decision that New York motorists hailed as wiser than any action taken by the original Solomon himself.

He ruled, in effect, that tickets for illegal parking couldn't be collected unless the policeman issuing the ticket actually saw who parked the car or knew positively who owned it.

Solomon even went further than that. He told motorists with tickets they didn't have to say whether they owned the ticketed car or not. They didn't even have to say whether they parked it, he decided.

The judicial wisdom was imparted by Magistrate Charles Solomon, 66, when eight motorists with parking tickets came before him in vehicle accident court.

The decision sent other judges scurrying to their lawbooks and

Such fines produced more than six million dollars in revenue last year and even more than that so far this year.

The only persons serene over the matter today were Solomon and the motorists he let off.

How to make Clabber Girl's SNOW CAKE

White as white, light as light—with tender texture and delicate flavor: that's Clabber Girl's Snow Cake. A pretty picture when finished and a cake really to be proud of, having baked yourself.

SNOW CAKE Yield: 2 8-inch layers

¼ teaspoon finely grated lemon rind

1¼ cups beet or cane sugar
½ cup shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup milk
3 egg whites

Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Crush together with fork the lemon rind and ¼ cup of the sugar; add to shortening; beat together until fluffy. Beat in gradually ½ cup sugar and the vanilla. Beat in gradually ¼ cup milk. Beat in remaining ½ cup sugar. Stir in by hand or at lowest speed with electric mixer, the sifted dry ingredients and remaining ¾ cup milk, by fourths, alternately, blending well after each addition. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Stir quickly into batter. Bake in two oiled or greased 8-inch layer cake pans at 350°F. (moderate oven) about 30 minutes. Fill and frost with Seven Minute Frosting and garnish with shredded coconut between layers and on top.

Kids Have Faith, But They Also Read Christmas Ads

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON —All you have to do is look at Santa's mail and you know that the kids not only have faith, but they are reading the Christmas ads in the newspapers.

Like a letter I saw in the dead letter office in the Post Office here. It was from an 8-year-old girl named Juanita.

She addressed her request to "Mr. S. Claus, North Pole, World," and said:

"I would like a bride doll and a man doll and some of those 'His and Hers' pajamas for my dolls. I love you Mr. Claus and also Mrs. Claus."

Reading Santa's mail is sneaky business. But there you will find the milk of human kindness and just plain old "please send me."

One woman wrote a note, which she knew would wind up in the dead letter office, for her two sons,

Bill, 5 1/2, and Jim, 2 1/2. They wanted the usual. But she put a P.S. to the postmaster: "We are sending you a lot of toys we never play with. See that some other kids can have some fun."

The Post Office is not in the business of playing Santa, but it was a nice thought, anyhow. Thing to do, according to the P. O. is to send usable toys to children's hospitals or to the Salvation Army, or any other reliable charity.

A little boy named Ulysses printed a little note addressed to "Santa, wherever you are." He said that he had all he wanted, "except a carriage and a two-for-the-money thing and a nurse kit and a baby my daddy can't afford to buy. Please answer right away."

Another boy, name of Homer, apparently had looked at some "wish books." Every toy he picked out had two brand names. One was marked with an "X," the other with a "C." "Bring only the 'X' marks," he said, "or you'll get the whole bunch back—collect. And I mean it." This 8-year-old didn't sign his name. But Mr. Claus knows.

Indiana's Oil Venture in Wabash River Hits Snag

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Indiana's oil drilling venture in the Wabash river has hit a snag, officials of the State Conservation Department reported today.

Director Harley Hook said the state is convinced there is a good oil supply under the river, but there is no easy way to get it to market. Owners of adjacent land will not allow the state to build terminals to receive the oil.

Their attitude is not unexpected, since the owners are the Tideland and Continental Oil companies, which have challenged the state's right to drill for oil along side their property. A court suit on that question is pending.

Hook said the state is considering the construction of a pipeline from state wells near New Harmony to a State Highway Commission roadside park about five miles downstream.

The Lynch Co. of Evansville has a contract to drill for oil on the state-owned river bottom, with Indiana getting 20 per cent of gross receipts.

Giant Spruce from South Dakota Dominates Yule Display in Capital

By BETTY JANE SOUTHLAND

United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP)—A giant spruce felled here from the Black Hills of South Dakota is the national Christmas tree this year.

The tree—ornamented with 8,000 colored lights—will be illuminated here when President Eisenhower pushes a button from his Gettysburg, Pa., farm during the holiday season (on Dec. 18).

At the same time community trees across the nation, in U. S. embassies abroad and on ships at sea will be lit.

The national tree-lighting ceremonies will usher in this year's Pageant of Peace—a two-week celebration to dramatize the Christmas message of peace on earth, good will to man.

The ceremonies will be attended by members of the Supreme Court, Congress and representatives from the United Nations and the Pan American union.

50 Embassies
The pageant will be held in the Ellipse, a park near the White House. The Washington Monument towers nearby.

About 50 embassies are planning to participate, along with representatives from the states, civic, school and cultural organizations. Many of the embassies will have trees or other national symbols in the Pathway of Peace, leading to the giant tree.

The Pakistani embassy, for example, will have a replica of the Badshahi, Lahore, mosque. The three-foot high replica is pink with a white dome and will be framed in a huge green wreath.

Pageant officials said there will be a life-size reproduction of the nativity scene. And around the park will be replicas of other Biblical events.

Santa Claus and eight live reindeer will be the main feature of the children's corner. Puppet shows will be shown several times daily.

Second Pageant
Beneath the giant tree a stage will be erected where religious services of all denominations will be held. There will also be plays, folk dances and song fests.

Part of the pageant will be broadcast abroad in English and 38 foreign languages by the Voice of America.

The idea behind the pageant—a non-partisan, non-secular, non-profit venture—is to provide an exchange of friendship and understanding among all the peoples of the world.

It was held for the first time last year. Its reception was so great that it was decided to make it an annual affair. Over 500,000 spectators visited the first pageant. And 6,000 men, women and children of practically every race and creed took part in the religious services and other presentations on the stage—all demonstrating the same message, peace on earth, good will to man.

RAPID CITY, S. D.—The Black Hills spruce that will be the centerpiece of the White House Pageant of Peace in Washington this Christmas is a 65-footer.

The spruce was provided by South Dakota's game, fish and parks department and the "Keep South Dakota Green" committee.

Jones, who talked briefly on the work of such organizations as the Eastern Star in maintaining that beautiful commandment "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself." (Foster Studio Photo)

Job Security Top Concern of Workers

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pay is a big factor in why a worker likes or dislikes his job, but job security is even more important to him, according to Psychological Service of Pittsburgh.

The service, in its first report on a long-range survey of what workers like and dislike about their jobs, said low pay and lack of opportunities for advancement can wreck morale, but precarious job security causes even more workers to be disgruntled.

Dr. Fred Herzberg, research director, said the survey so far shows from 13 to 20 per cent of all employees are dissatisfied with their jobs.

Younger workers start their careers enthusiastically, but their morale drops precariously when they reach the mid-20's and early 30's. However, the morale curve again rises and stabilizes when they reach middle age.

Workers in supervisory, executive and professional jobs generally are happier than those in lower classifications, but intelligence has nothing to do with job satisfaction, except that workers with high I.Q.'s are better able to explain why they are happy or unhappy.

South Dakota Green committee. State Forester Harry Woodward said the tree is a "perfect specimen" and "one of the most beautiful Black Hills spruces I've ever seen."

New Studebakers Feature Styling Change, New Engines, Major Safety Innovations

New styling, top horsepower in the low-price field, a new series of high-performance 5-passenger sports-type cars, major engineering advances and a record list of safety innovations and improvements are outstanding features in the all-new line of Studebaker passenger cars for 1956.

Presented by Studebaker also as the highest power in standard volume-produced cars in the low-price field is the new 210-horsepower President Classic four-door sedan.

Public introductions in dealer showrooms feature sedans and station wagons in the full President V8, Commander V8 and Champion six series.

The new models are now on display at the Exide Garage, local dealer.

Markedly bigger in exterior appearance, the new Studebakers have greater room inside, and trunk room has been increased by 20 per cent. The new design is described as a basic advance within auto industry trends at the same time it heightens Studebaker's reputation as postwar automotive style leader.

Mechanical innovations include an advanced automatic transmission—the new Flightomatic; special "safety-fin" brakes that increase brake-drum cooling by 100 per cent to maintain non-fade eficiency when heavily used, and a new concept in speed indicators—a color-lighted "safety-eye" speedometer.

Studebaker's new lines include 16 models—12 in the sedan and station wagon series, and four in the volume-produced sports-type group.

Heading the nine models in the sedan series is the President Classic four-door V8. The Classic model—more than 17 feet long and luxury-styled throughout—is powered by a new Sweepstakes 289-V8 engine with four-barrel carburetion. Also powered by the Sweepstakes 289-V8 engine are two other sedans in the President series and the Pinehurst President station wagon.

Commander sedans and the Parkview Commander station wagon features the most powerful engine ever offered in the Commander series—the new Sweepstakes 259-V8 at 170 horsepower. Power kits, comprised of four-barrel carburetion and dual exhaust, will be available as optional equipment and will increase the 259-V8 horsepower to 185.

Champion sedans and the Pelham Champion station wagon have a newly improved Sweepstakes 185 heavy-duty economy six engine, with 101 horsepower.

Heading the list of Studebaker safety innovations is a new "safe-

NEW STUDEBAKER PRESIDENT CLASSIC FOUR-DOOR SEDAN—Presented by Studebaker as the highest powered car in the volume low-price field is the big new 210-horsepower President Classic four-door sedan. All-new styling gives the car bigger exterior appearance, more room inside, and 20 per cent more trunk space. The new Classic, which is more than 17 feet long, also features length-accenting two-tone color styling that is eye-catching for both its flair and good taste. All new two-color interiors are available in a wide choice of fabrics and vinyls, matched with exterior color selections. The new Studebakers are on display at the Exide Garage, local dealer.

ty-fin" brake drum which increases cooling area by more than 100 per cent, thus greatly minimizing brake "fade." The cooling feature of the new Studebaker "safety-fin" drum—standard equipment on President models—allows consistently quick, straight line stops in high-speed driving and mountainous terrain as well as regular driving conditions. In addition, the new drum substantially lengthens brake life.

Another Studebaker innovation is a new colorlighted "safety-eye" speedometer housed smartly on top of the instrument panel directly in front of the driver. The "safety-eye" permits the driver to check speed without glancing away from the road. The speedometer indicates speeds in large, easy-to-see numerals that are in green light from 0 to 35 miles per hour, in orange light from 35 to 60, and in red at higher speeds. It is standard on all sedans and station wagon models.

Judge's Wife Helps Out a Defendant

BOSTON — A Medford truck driver was ordered to pay $800 in connection with an extortion case. Several months later he was haled into court because he had failed to make any payments.

He said it was hard getting along on the small wages with a wife and three children to support.

Federal Judge William T. McCarthy ordered him to begin paying $10 a month. Whereupon the judge's wife, a courtroom spectator, handed the defendant $10 for the first installment.

Court to Hear Challenge to Dedistricting

SPRINGFIELD — Oral arguments on a challenge to Illinois' historic 1953 legislative reapportionment will be heard as the opening case of the state Supreme Court's January term.

The Supreme Court clerk's office announced Tuesday Justice Walter V. Schaefer, Chicago, had ordered the case set for 9:30 a. m. Jan. 9.

Edward V. Donovan Jr., Chicago, has attacked the redistricting bill on grounds it did not comply with a constitutional amendment requiring that area "be given prime consideration" in laying out new Senate districts.

A ruling for Donovan would probably mean the governor would have to call a special session of the legislature to pass a new reapportionment act.

If the Legislature failed to act or if other constitutional measures failed to produce a new legislative map, the state might have to elect nearly 200 legislators on a statewide or at-large basis.

This would result in a large and confusing ballot and would make almost impossible the job of counting ballots for state representative.

The court is expected to hand down a speedy decision in the case since candidates for the Legislature must file nominating petitions in January.

The 1953 reapportionment was the state's first in 54 years and came only after a long fight to win approval of a constitutional amendment to open the way for redistricting.

Point for Argument

NEW YORK — Lady, if you want to learn to drive, go to a professional teacher. Not your husband.

This advice comes from Alfred L. Moseley, consulting psychologist for the American Mutual Liability Insurance Co., who said husbands make lousy driving instructors. Moseley has been studying driver training methods based on tape recordings of actual driving lessons.

He found that husbands don't show their wives how to drive. They tell them. They are full of advice but do not give specific directions in time for the wife to respond. They let their wives drive too fast while learning. And to top it all, husbands don't know all the things which should be taught to make a safe and skillful driver.

"When a woman wants to learn to drive, she's better off to go to a qualified driving school," Moseley concluded.

Back-Breaker Gifts for Homes Of TV Stars

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — Christmas on TV Row looks like a back-breaker for Santa Claus this year. The gift lists of the stars show everything from a 6-foot toy tiger to a whole hotel.

The giant striped cat is going to Dave Garraway's 10-year-old daughter, Paris. It's from Germany and stuffed. Garraway, an early riser, also has plans afoot to make sure his cast rolls out in the wee hours—he's giving them all alarm clocks.

At Martha Raye's Connecticut home, Santa will have to carry in a horse. Martha has ordered a thoroughbred for her 11-year-old young 'un, Melodye. Martha's daughter also will get a color TV set for her room.

The hotel, the Apache in Beverly Hills, Calif., is on the gift list of Polly Bergen. She's bought it for her parents.

Peter Lind Hayes is giving his wife, Mary Healy, an combined Christmas and 15th wedding anniversary present. It's a cracker-jack box. Inside it—a diamond ring from Cartier's.

Steve Allen won't tell what he's giving his wife, Jayne Meadows, but he's decided on a Polaroid camera for Steve Jr., 12, and a two-wheeler for David, 6. Allen is still shopping for a present for his 9-year-old, Brian.

Dennis James and his wife, Micki, who own a unique double easel, are doing oil portraits of each other. They'll exchange the canvases at Christmas.
